

Mircea Sigal, MD (Israel)

Professor at Bar Ilan University, Ramat Gan, Israel

Member of the International Society for the Study of Women's Sexual Health

Member of the International Neuro-sychoanalysis Society

Prof. Dr. Mircea Sigal received his medical degree from the University of Bucharest, Romania, and completed his residency in psychiatry in Israel. He was Ministry of Health District Psychiatrist (Head of Forensic Psychiatry), and for 22 years the general director of Lev Hasharon Hospital (one of the top mental health hospitals in Israel).

Prof. Sigal has written and coauthored over 60 peer reviewed journal articles and some book chapters. He is a professor at Bar Ilan University, Ramat Gan, Israel and an active member of the International Society for the Study of Women's Sexual Health, and of the International Neuro- Psychoanalysis Society.

Prof. Sigal specializes in Adult ADHD, and Sexual Behavior. He currently devotes his time to clinical practice and to the development of novel therapeutic approaches for ADHD and Sex Addictions.